

Simple E-commerce User Flows

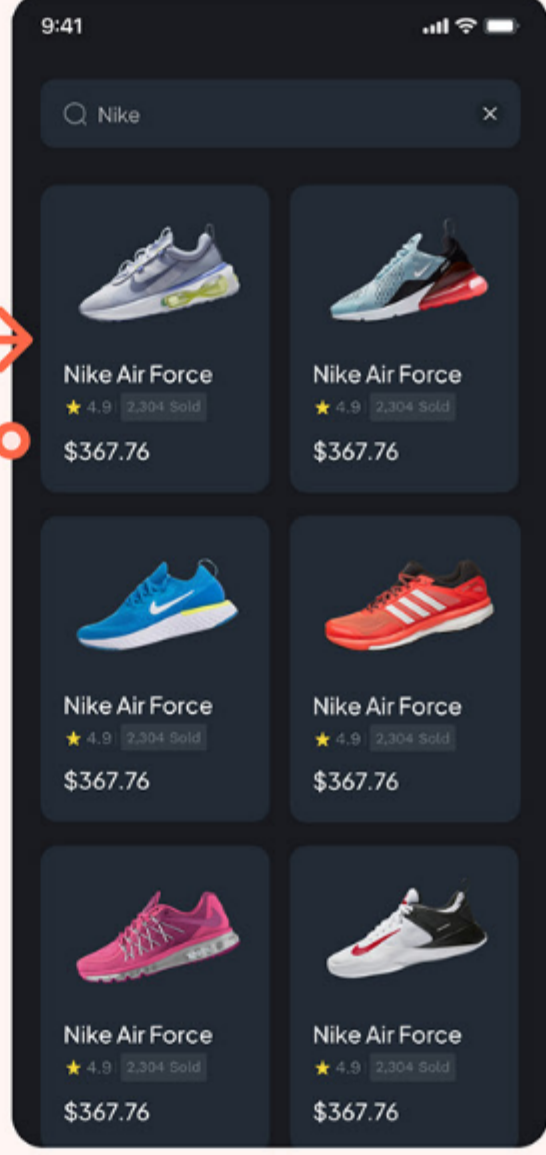

Home Page

The user starts on the home page. If users doesn't find the product in home, they will start searching for it.

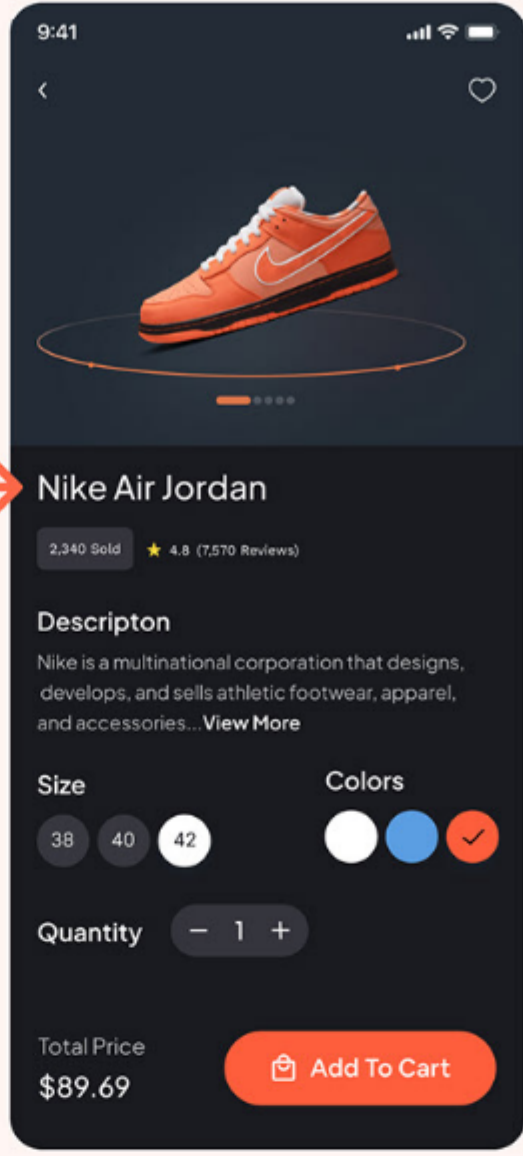

Search Results

From search results, the user selects a specific Product and navigates to the Products details page.

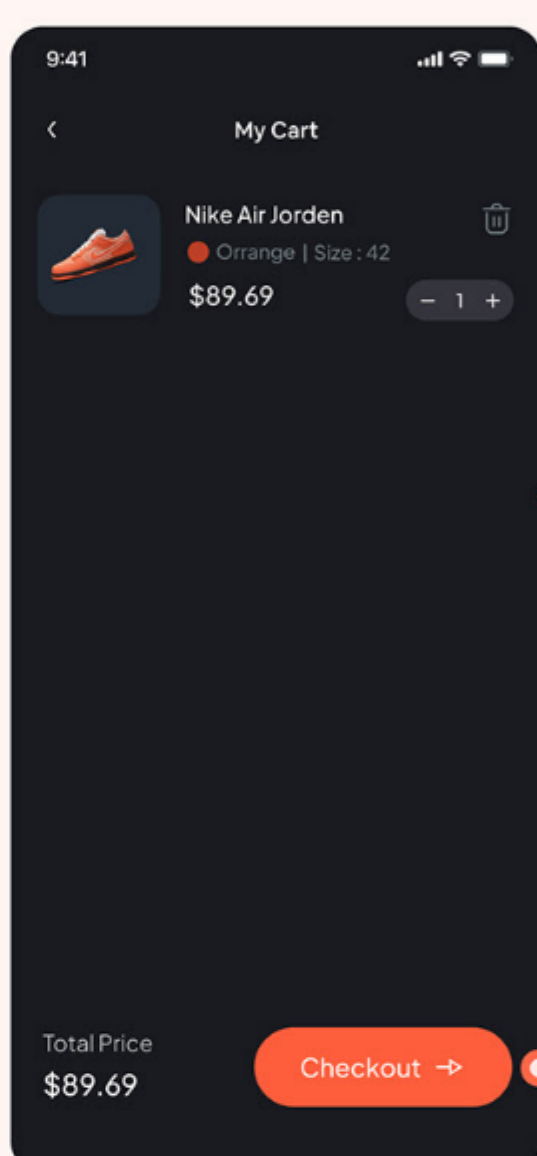

Product Page

If user likes the products, the user adds that item to the cart and navigate to the cart page.

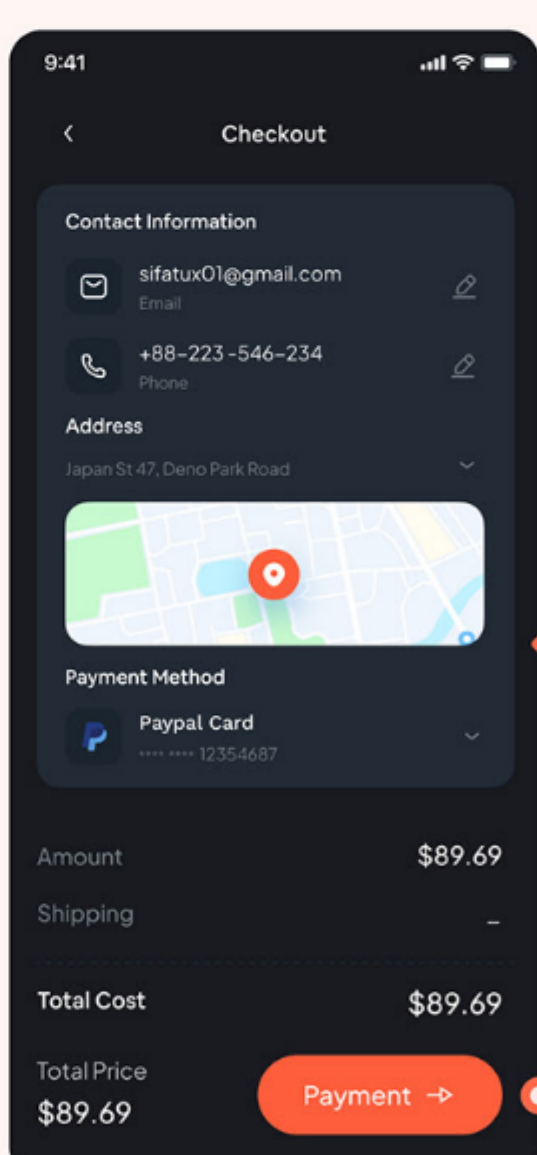

Cart Page

In cart page the user scans the products details (example : Color, Size), Then user navigates to checkout page.

Checkout Page

In checkout page the user can add their details like address, Payment method and place the order.

Payment Confirmation

In checkout page the user can add their details like address, Payment method and place the order.

